

CRADICK RETAIL ARE RECRUITING

We have an exciting opportunity for a

TRAINEE SURVEYOR

to assist in carrying out all aspects of retail agency within the south east.

Salary range: £18,000 - £20,000

The job will include liaising with clients, marketing premises, property inspections, accompanying viewings and associated research. Strong organisational and communication skills are required together with the ability to work and share information within the team. Benefits to include access to our company healthcare plan and the potential for flexible working.

Cradick Retail is a long established retail property consultancy based in Tunbridge Wells with an extensive client base including major retailers, food store operators and landlords. For the right candidate the vacancy could offer quick and rewarding potential for progression in a busy and challenging environment.

Click on the link for a more detailed job description. CVs and accompanying letters by email only, to khix@cradick.co.uk.

READ MORE